GERMAN THEATRE ASSETS ARE TIED UP

Manager Can't Collect Salary but He Enjoins Funds of the Playhouse.

Supreme Court Justice O'Gorman to-May denied the application of Maurice Baumfield for the appointment of a rebeiver of the German Theatre, Incorporated, pending the trial of his suit to recover $3,650 that he claims is due him for back salary as manager of the themarket to-day, Reading, Wabash, Union and Missouri Pacific, American Ice and Missouri

Baumfield claims that he was selected as manager of the German Theatre, Madison avenue and Fifty-ninth street, fast August at a salary of $200 a week. Of this amount, he declares, he has been paid only $30.

The manager got an order of the court levying on the property, but a deputy sheriff was told that as of the corporation's property had been assigned to Mrs. Melica Blitz, wife of the president, and that the lease of the theatre, together with the box-office receipts, had also been assigned to her last August, before the theatre was opened.

"They thought I had gone out to a moving picture show," he said, as if pleased at his cunning. "Mother gave me ten cents to pay my way in, but I was hidden in the kitchen. I built a fire under one of the beds and locked the door of the room, then I built fires the door of the room, then I built fires under the parlor lounge and one in the kitchen and locked all the doors. Then I beat it out to the Lenox avenue subway over to Brooklyn. I thought I would escape, but I'd rather be locked up."

Mrs. Orr said her son had never been mentally responsible, and has the mind of a child. Not long ago when the family lived in a house in Ninety-fifth street he was arrested on suspicion of setting the place on fire and was held for Special Sessions, but was found not guilty.
